Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Many of our most eminent citizens and publications believe the trial of Morton Sobell to have been unfair, or the 30-year sentence excessive. In view of this significant concern, it is disturbing that no action has yet been taken in his behalf.

I wish to add my voice to those requesting you to commute his sentence to the time served. Even the possibility that an innocent man may be imprisoned is a terrible thing. Each added day of prison that Morton Sobell is made to endure -- and he is already in his 10th year -- compounds this tragic situation for the Sobell family and for our country.

Very sincerely yours,

William Katzenbach

President Dwight D. Eisenhower
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Many of our most eminent citizens and publications believe the trial of Morton Sobell to have been unfair, or the 30-year sentence excessive. In view of this significant concern, it is disturbing that no action has yet been taken in his behalf.

I wish to add my voice to those requesting you to commute his sentence to the time served. Even the possibility that an innocent man may be imprisoned is a terrible thing. Each added day of prison that Morton Sobell is made to endure -- and he is already in his 10th year -- compounds this tragic situation for the Sobell family and for our country.

Very sincerely yours,

Paula Shulman

Dear Mr. President:

PARDON ATTY

On November 19th, 20th and 21st there will be a convening in Washington of Americans representing the thousands who are asking freedom for Morton Sobell during the traditional amnesty period at Christmas. Because so many eminent individuals and organizations have raised questions about his continued imprisonment, I would like to join in asking a commutation of his sentence.

Mr. Sobell has steadfastly maintained he is completely innocent. His 30-year sentence contrasts sharply with lesser sentences given in espionage cases even to persons who pleaded guilty, such as Klaus Fuchs, Alan Nunn May and Francis Powers. Mr. Sobell has already served 10 years. Certainly he and his family have suffered enough, and it is time to be merciful and grant him release.

Dear Mr. President:

On November 19th, 20th and 21st there will be a convening in Washington of Americans representing the thousands who are asking freedom for Morton Sobell during the traditional amnesty period at Christmas. Because so many eminent individuals and organizations have raised questions about his continued imprisonment, I would like to join in asking a commutation of his sentence.

Mr. Sobell has steadfastly maintained he is completely innocent. His 30-year sentence contrasts sharply with lesser sentences given in espionage cases even to persons who pleaded guilty, such as Klaus Fuchs, Alan Nunn May and Francis Powers. Mr. Sobell has already served 10 years. Certainly he and his family have suffered enough, and it is time to be merciful and grant him release.

We call your attention to the discussion of the Morton Sobell case placed as an advertisement in the New York Times by a group of eminent Americans.

We concur in the plea for Morton Sobell's freedom, and call upon our fellow citizens to help. It is urgent that the voice of the public be heard in Washington during the coming months to encourage Sobell's release during the traditional Christmas amnesty season.

Will you join us in signing the statement below?

Dear Mr. President:

Many of our most eminent citizens and publications believe the trial of Morton Sobell to have been unfair, or the 30-year sentence excessive. In view of this significant concern, it is disturbing that no action has yet been taken in his behalf.

I wish to add my voice to those requesting you to commute his sentence to the time served. Even the possibility that an innocent man may be imprisoned is a terrible thing. Each added day of prison that Morton Sobell is made to endure -- and he is already in his 10th year -- compounds this tragic situation for the Sobell family and for our country.

Very sincerely yours,

Wm. Eleanor Keene

Dear Mr. President:

I wish to add my voice to those of the many clergymen and other eminent Americans recommending a commutation of sentence for Morton Sobell, who is enduring his 10th year of imprisonment.

I hope that you will grant freedom this holiday season to Mr. Sobell -- many of our distinguished citizens believe he was convicted on flimsy testimony and given an unduly harsh sentence.

Season's greetings and best wishes of good health for you and your family.

A Petition in Behalf of Morton Sobell

Mr. President:

White House
Washington, D. C.

BECAUSE OUR COUNTRY

has the strength to recognize possible errors and the humanity to be merciful;

BECAUSE THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS

believe that Morton Sobell did not have a fair trial;

consider his 30-year sentence in Alcatraz cruel and inhuman punishment;

BECAUSE MORTON SOBELL

has steadfastly maintained his innocence throughout his seven years of imprisonment and continues his efforts to secure a new trial;

for these reasons I join with my fellow Americans in asking you to return Morton Sobell to his wife and children through executive pardon or commutation, or by instructing the Attorney General to recommend a new trial.

Mr. President:

White House

BECAUSE OUR COUNTRY

has the strength to recognize possible errors and the humanity to be merciful;

BECAUSE THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS

consider his 30-year sentence in Alcatraz cruel and inhuman punishment;

BECAUSE MORTON SOBELL

has steadfastly maintained his innocence throughout his seven years of imprisonment and continues his efforts to secure a new trial;

for these reasons I join with my fellow Americans in asking you to return Morton Sobell to his wife and children through executive pardon or commutation, or by instructing the Attorney General to recommend a new trial.

A Petition in Behalf of Morton Sobell

Mr. President:

White House
Washington, D. C.

BECAUSE OUR COUNTRY

has the strength to recognize possible errors and the humanity to be merciful;

BECAUSE THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS

believe that Morton Sobell did not have a fair trial;

consider his 30-year sentence in Alcatraz cruel and inhuman punishment;

BECAUSE MORTON SOBELL

has steadfastly maintained his innocence throughout his seven years of imprisonment and continues his efforts to secure a new trial;

for these reasons I join with my fellow Americans in asking you to return Morton Sobell to his wife and children through executive pardon or commutation, or by instructing the Attorney General to recommend a new trial.

Washington, D. C.

BECAUSE OUR COUNTRY

has the strength to recognize possible errors and the humanity to be merciful;

BECAUSE THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS

believe that Morton Sobell did not have a fair trial;

consider his 30-year sentence in Alcatraz cruel and inhuman punishment;

BECAUSE MORTON SOBELL

has steadfastly maintained his innocence throughout his seven years of imprisonment and continues his efforts to secure a new trial;

for these reasons I join with my fellow Americans in asking you to return Morton Sobell to his wife and children through executive pardon or commutation, or by instructing the Attorney General to recommend a new trial.
